

RESOURCES FOR TEEN WRITERS - 2018/19

- Teen Writers Workshop (Grades 7-12), Bainbridge Public Library

This free, drop-in workshop meets 2nd Thursdays during the school year from 4:00-5:30. No registration. First meeting is Thurs., Sept. 13th. Bring a work-in-progress or start something new. Co-facilitated by Margaret Nevinski and Rayne Lacko. www.krl.org

- BARN Writers (Bainbridge Artisan Resource Network). Writers' Studio at BARN offers classes and talks. <http://bainbridgebarn.org/studios/writers/>
- Write the World. A global community of writers ages 13-18. Prompts, a place to share your work, and competitions. <https://writetheworld.com>
- One Teen Story. A literary magazine for teen writers (ages 13-19), including a contest that opens in Sept. <https://www.one-story.com/index.php?page=ots>
- Storybooth. Real animated video stories from teens and young adults. Tell a true story and have it animated. <https://storybooth.com>
- Wattpad. Read and share stories. <https://www.wattpad.com>
- Teen Ink Magazine. Ages 13-19. Written entirely by teens www.teenink.com
- Cicada. Ages 14+. A YA lit/comics magazine. www.cicadamag.com
- YARN - Young Adult Review Network. Online journal with short fiction, poetry, and essays by and for teen readers and writers. <http://yareview.net/>
- NaNoWriMo - National Novel Writing Month – November 1-30. Write a novel in a month with a supportive community! <http://nanowrimo.org/>

Is there a teen writing resource we should know about?
Email Margaret at mar.nevinski@gmail.com. Thanks!